Bill Rice was born in Hartford, CT on September 1, 1961 and shortly thereafter moved with his parents to Wethersfield, CT.

After attending his freshman year at South Catholic High in Hartford, he graduated from Wethersfield High School (Class of 1980) and was a founding member of the school's Athletic Supporter Society (ASS).

Bill attended Northeastern University (Class of 1985) in Boston and graduated with a B.S. in Communications with minors in Political Science and Computer Science. During his time at NU he was active in the Silver Masque Drama Club and Dance Theatre. He also was a founding member of the Back Bay Yachting Club.

After college, Bill began a career in financial services and worked in the marketing departments for Fidelity Investments, Boston Five Cents Savings Bank, Colonial Mutual Funds, and Liberty Financial Companies. It was at Fidelity that he fell in love with the beautiful Michelle Clark and they were married shortly thereafter.

While working and raising a family, Bill attended Harvard University part time and received a Certificate in Business Administration in 1992.

Bill took a position at Smith Barney Consulting Group and moved his family to Delaware for three years before moving back to the Hartford area and settling in Simsbury.

An entrepreneur at heart, Bill founded the Wealth Management News Service, Family Cookbook Project and the Web Marketing Association.

Bill is an avid photographer, enjoys boating in Cape Cod Bay and is currently updating his family tree.
